

KEEPING COOKING SKILLS ALIVE

Would you like to join us for a taster evening?

Whether you're an absolute beginner or a more adventurous cook, whether you belong to an organisation, a community group, a school or university, or you're simply a member of the public, you're welcome.

At the end of each session, you can take home a delicious dish that you cooked yourself!

Sessions last around 1½ hours, cost £7 each per person, and we provide all ingredients and equipment.
